LEADERS FOR EDUCATION, ADVOCACY AND DEMOCRACY

THE LEAD PROGRAM places high school and college students in local, state & federal governmental and community offices in the Bay Area. For over 17 years, our prestigious program has trained students to be conscientious & responsible leaders in advocacy, policy and service.

APPLICATION DEADLINES:

Limited spots are available each year. We encourage all interested applicants to apply early.*

Deadline – Wed. February 17, 2016

PROGRAM BENEFITS:

- Real life, on-the-job professional experience
- Community organizing, project planning and volunteer management experience
- Professional Leadership Trainings: Office Etiquette, Public Speaking, Time Management and more
- Networking with local professionals: Community leaders, elected officials and government staff
- Guidance, mentorship and support
- Preparation for a rigorous university and academic environment
- Build a resume for college applications & employment opportunities in social work, etc.
- And much more

PROGRAM COMPONENTS:

SCHOLARSHIPS

LEAD provides full scholarships for the enrollment fee to ensure that the program is accessible to students from all financial backgrounds. Please indicate interest for consideration in application. Please refer to p. 6 for Qualification Guideline.

PROGRAM COST

$1,000 Enrollment Fee

LEAD is a program of Asian Americans for Community Involvement, a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization. The cost per participant of our program far exceeds the amount of staff support we put into mentoring the students. We ask for the fee to serve as a contribution to our organization so that we may continue to provide our prestigious program.

A $250 Check Deposit must be submitted with application, and will be refunded if the applicant is not accepted into the program. If an applicant is accepted and confirmed, the $250 check will be deducted from the $1,000 program fee and the remainder $750 of the program fee is due the first day of the program. Students applying for a scholarship are not required to submit a check deposit.
